

Cumberland County Courthouse

Carlisle, PA

With a heightened awareness for better security, the Cumberland County Sheriffs Department elected to replace their legacy security system at the Cumberland County Courthouse with a state of the art, IP Video network in early 2007.

The network, based on a Milestone Video Software platform remains rock solid. The department hopes to expand their network and add additional cameras in the years to come.

